I am treated with dignity and respect, and can maintain my identity.

I can make informed choices about my care and services, and live the life I choose.

Aged Care Quality Standards

Standard 1: Consumer dignity and choice - Consumer outcome 5

The role of families

Substitute decision-making I decide on your behalf	Supported decision-making “Not knowing where I am doesn't mean I don't know what I like”
Best interests Your best interests	Substituted judgement What you want (would have wanted)

1.1 Each consumer is treated with dignity and respect, and their identity, culture and diversity is valued.

1.2 Each consumer is able to (and supported to as needed) exercise choice and independence, including to:

- a. make decisions about their own care and the way that care and services are delivered
- b. make decisions about when family, friends, carers or others should be involved in their care
- c. communicate their decisions
- d. make connections with others and maintain relationships of choice, including intimate relationships.

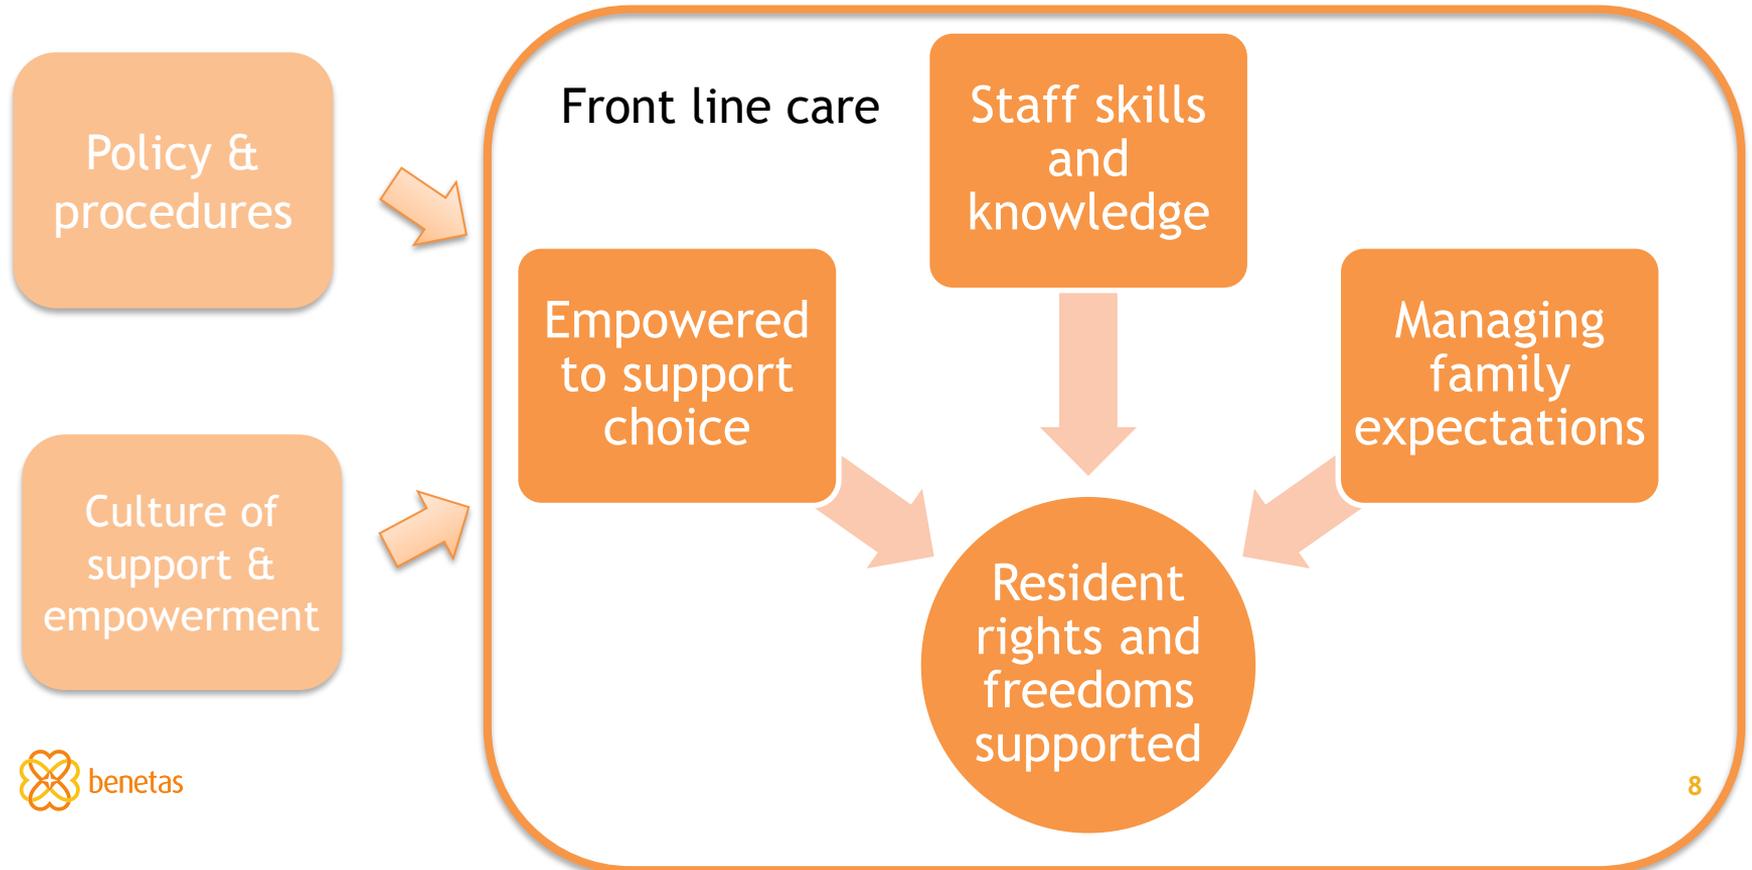

1.3 Where a consumer's choice involves risk to their health and/or safety, they are informed about the risks, the potential consequences to themselves and others, and how risk can be managed to assist the consumers to live the life they choose.

Supporting a rights-based approach

Front line staff skills and knowledge

Puzzle approach

- Focus on caring interaction
- Problem-solving approach

Misattention

- “Box-ticking”
- Letter of the regulation rather than the spirit
