

CEPAR China Workshop
University of New South Wales
August 6th, 2015
Organized by Hanming Fang and John Piggott
Location: Room 2063, Quadrangle Building, Kensington Campus, UNSW

8:30-9:00am Coffee and tea

9:00am-9:10am Welcome from John Piggott (CEPAR Director) and Hanming Fang

9:10-10:00 Xin Meng (Australian National University)

“Children of Migrants: The Cumulative Impact of Parental Migration on Their Children’s Education and Health Outcomes”

10:00-10:50 Joseph P.H. Fan (Chinese University of Hong Kong, visiting ANU)

“How Weak Public Governance Distorts the Finance, Governance, and Organization of Chinese Firms”

10:50-11:20am Coffee/Tea Break

11:20am-12:10pm Hanming Fang (University of Pennsylvania, and CEPAR/UNSW)

“Demystifying the Chinese Housing Boom”

12:10pm-1:00pm Peter Robertson (University of Western Australia)

1:00pm-2:00pm Lunch

2:00pm-2:50pm Annie Wei Zheng (ANU)

“Population Age Structure, Sectoral Change and Economic Growth in China”

2:50pm-4:00pm Roundtable Discussions (Moderator: John Piggott)

- Population Ageing and its Impacts (Pensions, long term care, labor market)
- Housing and Financial Markets
- Public finance
- Environment
- International monetary system

4:00pm Drinks. (Business School Lounge, West Wing, Level 6)